A high-quality photograph of a car's interior, viewed from the passenger side looking towards the driver's seat. The car features a sophisticated design with a light-colored leather dashboard and center console, accented with dark wood trim. The seats are upholstered in a light-colored leather with a prominent diamond-quilted pattern. A small, elegant car diffuser is suspended from the rearview mirror. The background, visible through the windshield, shows a scenic view of mountains under a clear sky.
